CEELI INSTITUTE
VILLA GRÖBOVKA,
PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC

October 18-19, 2021
November 11-12, 2021

The two-day seminar, organized in cooperation of the CEELI Institute and the Association of Croatian Judges, is designed for active civil judges from EU member countries, focusing on the application of EU instruments in civil justice, and providing access to the full extent of rights guaranteed by EU law. Specifically, this course focuses on the application of Council Regulations (EC) No. 2201/2003(EU), 2016/1103 and 2016/1104, all of which concern jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in matrimonial matters and the matters of parental responsibility (Brussels IIa), and Regulation (EU) 2016/1191 on promoting free movement of citizens by simplifying the requirements for presenting certain public documents in the EU.

The module will also cover understanding and application of the provisions of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU, as relevant, to the issues and cases they confront in their national courts. Each of the seminars will be held for 30 participants. Participants should be active civil judges from EU countries. The CEELI Institute will cover the costs of travel and meals for participants, and will also provide per diem to cover their accommodation and incidental expenses.
