To the attention of Mr Geshev
Prosecutor General

Dear Prosecutor-General Geshev,

On behalf of Sophie in't Veld, the chair of the LIBE Democracy, Rule of Law and Fundamental Rights Monitoring Group (DRFMG) in the European Parliament, you are kindly invited to the next meeting of our Monitoring Group on June 13th, 2023, from 09.00 to 10.30 in Strasbourg – time is subject of confirmation depending on meeting room availabilities.

The DRFMG was set up in September 2019 in response to the murders of Maltese journalist Daphne Caruana Galizia and Slovak journalist Jan Kuciak, in order to monitor the situation as regards rule of law and fight against corruption within the EU and address specific situations. The DRF Monitoring Group focuses on threats to democracy, rule of law and fundamental rights and the fight against corruption within the EU. Since then, the Monitoring Group has executed several missions to monitor DRF at the request of EU Member States, including the mission to Bulgaria in 2021 September and a session in January and December 2022 where you also participated.

The next meeting will be dedicated to the recent developments in Bulgaria. The chair and the members of the DRFMG would be delighted to invite you to participate in this meeting. A possibility to participate remotely will be ensured.

Please find attached some follow-up questions of the last meeting took place in December 2022. The members of the DRFMG would appreciate your written answers, if possible ahead of the meeting on 13 June.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Kind regards,

The LIBE DRFMG Secretariat
